

Coming to Temecula August 23rd

8:00 am – 12:00 noon

You could be ½ day away
from a fresh new start!

You will want to attend this seminar if you would like to:

- Discover your own life map
- Connect your faith with your everyday life
- Be maximized and use your strengths
- Know that you count and make a difference
- Increase your effectiveness from year to year
- Gain momentum and passion
- Move ahead and take your next step

For a small investment of $35 this ½ day seminar will guide you through seven principles that will help you design a life that is fulfilling and pleasing to God.

Seminar includes:

- Study guide (book not included)
- Seven Seas Map or Guide
- Muffins and coffee, refreshments

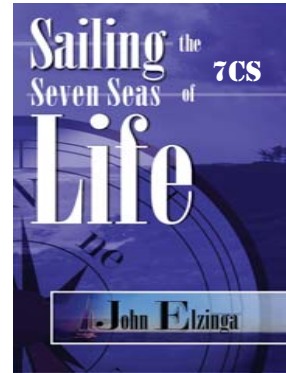

John Elzinga has a diverse background. He has spent several years in the ministry as well as 25 years in the business world. He is a certified life coach and has developed resources for personal improvement, organizational effectiveness, and church related or faith-based effectiveness. He has delivered seminars to business leaders and organizations across the nation. John Elzinga has spent years reading and researching issues which hold back both the individual Christian and the evangelical Church from achieving their intended purposes. He has been an adviser to pastors and business leaders concerning matters of organizational performance and dysfunction.

To Register: go to www.sssoflife.com or call 951-587-8412

Where there is no vision, the people are unrestrained....(Proverbs 29:18)

Coming to Temecula August 23rd

8:00 am – 12:00 noon

You could be ½ day away
from a fresh new start!

You will want to attend this seminar if you would like to:

- Discover your own life map
- Connect your faith with your everyday life
- Be maximized and use your strengths
- Know that you count and make a difference
- Increase your effectiveness from year to year
- Gain momentum and passion
- Move ahead and take your next step

For a small investment of $35 this ½ day seminar will guide you through seven principles that will help you design a life that is fulfilling and pleasing to God.

Seminar includes:

- Study guide (book not included)
- Seven Seas Map or Guide
- Muffins and coffee, refreshments

John Elzinga has a diverse background. He has spent several years in the ministry as well as 25 years in the business world. He is a certified life coach and has developed resources for personal improvement, organizational effectiveness, and church related or faith-based effectiveness. He has delivered seminars to business leaders and organizations across the nation. John Elzinga has spent years reading and researching issues which hold back both the individual Christian and the evangelical Church from achieving their intended purposes. He has been an adviser to pastors and business leaders concerning matters of organizational performance and dysfunction.

To Register: go to www.sssoflife.com or call 951-587-8412

Where there is no vision, the people are unrestrained....(Proverbs 29:18)